

August 17, 2011

Written by Adria Young (adyoung@costar.com)

Chicago Veterans Form Cabanban Rubin & Mayberry

Former Zifkin Realty Brokers Start New Retail Firm

Todd Cabanban, Marc Rubin and Kyle Mayberry, retail brokers formerly of Zifkin Realty Group LLC, formed a new Chicago-based commercial real estate firm entitled Cabanban Rubin & Mayberry Commercial Realty. Together, the three founding principals have more than 50 years of commercial real estate experience in tenant and landlord representation.

Cabanban has more than 20 years of experience in the local commercial property market and has represented landlords such as Dollar Tree and BP Amoco.

Rubin's 19 years in the industry includes representing major retailers such as CVS/Pharmacy and AT&T Wireless.

Mayberry has focused on tenant representation and product leasing locally for eight years and has represented clients such as Advance Auto.

Despite its "boutique" reputation, Cabanban Rubin & Mayberry plan to pursue the dollar stores and Discount Department stores in the Chicago retail market rivaling larger firms, in hopes to obtain new business and gain global recognition.